G. Hearings

34. The Court, in session, may run one or more hearings in a case and come to a determination. The Court may dispense with a hearing only under circumstances set out in standing orders.
35. A hearing must be in public unless the Court directs it or part of it to be held in closed session, in circumstances set out in standing orders. Reasonable steps must be taken to inform any person or body who may be directly affected by any potential order of the hearing and its purpose.

35. The Court shall determine the wording of the referendum question. In doing so it may, with the approval of those the Court deems responsible for organising the petition and as an alternative to quashing a proposed policy, amend it to the extent that it becomes constitutional.
36. Once constitutionality is resolved, the Executive Committee shall authorise notice to be given of the referendum within five College days.
37. The referendum shall be held between twenty and twenty-five College days of notice having been given. G. Campaigning and Publicity

42. In any election or referendum publicity including, but not limited to Felix, Media Group media, Faculty Union newsletters, club and society newsletters shall be equally available to all candidates. All media conducting interviews or discussions must notify all candidates in writing three days before the interview or discussion is due to take place.
43. All media or newsletter reports or comments must mention the names of all candidates standing for a post within the body of the report, in the case of elections, or attempt to produce a balanced debate on both sides of the argument in the case of referenda. In any case reports and comments should be fair and accurate.

Candidates' publicity

44. No candidates' campaign publicity may appear prior to the close of nominations, in the case of elections, or before notice of a referendum is published, in the case of a referendum.
45. All publicity material is to be covered by a suitable receipt. The maximum amount that may be spent on an election or referendum campaign will be decided by the - returning officer or elections committee and notified to the candidates at close of nominations.

46. No form of Union or College insignia shall appear on any candidate's publicity material.
 47. Campaign publicity, including flyers, shall be removed from the line of sight and six metres of all ballot boxes.

Campaigning on the record

48. Candidates are permitted to refer to other candidates in their publicity only to the extent permitted below:
 1. Statements made by candidates,
 2. Conduct by candidates previously or currently in office, related to their office,
 3. A disciplinary hearing in relation to a candidate.
49. Any reference must fulfil the following conditions:
 1. A reference must be relevant to a candidate's integrity or ability,
 2. No reference may be made which is merely scandalous or intended only to vilify, insult or annoy,
 3. No reference may be made to any personal trait of character, except in so far as it is clearly demonstrated by other statements or conduct,
 4. No reference may be made to another candidate's political views, except in so far as they relate to students in their interests as students,
 5. No reference may be made to another candidate's religious views.
50. Any reference to a statement or fact must be supported by substantial and independent evidence, for example meeting minutes, publications, reports, written publicity or hustings comments. The burden of proof is upon the person seeking to assert the facts or statements, to the extent that the returning officer or elections committee must be sure that they are true.
51. Reference may only be made to a disciplinary hearing and charges made in it if the candidate was found guilty of misconduct, censured or dismissed and no appeal is outstanding. The returning officer must deem it in the student interest for it to be revealed, and may make any restriction on revelation of detail about it.
52. If a candidate referred to in any publicity disputes the truth of such a statement and provides evidence or an explanation which results in the burden of proof no longer being met, or demonstrates that the other regulatory restrictions applied, the publicity may then be disallowed. A returning officer may choose to hear both candidates' arguments in any fair way he or she wishes.
53. Publicity which is disallowed must be removed within 24 hours. If it involved any comment in a publication, it must be retracted or correcting comment put in within 24 hours, or in the next publication.
54. No new publicity referring to other candidates may be authorised within 48 hours of ballot boxes opening. This advance time may be extended by the returning officer or policy.

56. The returning officer (or elections committee if there is one) shall determine the date and format of hustings, which shall be chaired by the returning officer or a nominee.
57. The chair of hustings shall ensure that each candidate is treated equally in the proceedings, and that questions are directly or indirectly relevant to the potential performance of the candidate in the post being elected.
58. In referenda, the referendum committee shall organise at least one public, fair and balanced debate which shall take place not less than two and not more than five College days prior to the vote.

I. New Election

Formatted: Left

Formatted: Superscript

59. The returning officer shall appoint a New Election campaign manager and allocate a budget (as permitted within budgetary policy) up to the same level as the other candidates.
60. In the event of:
 1. New Election winning, or
 2. a decision to re-run the entire election including nominations, nominations shall be re-opened within ten College days and the election repeated.
61. In the event that New Election commits an unfair practice as described in section 87 it may be additionally ordered that the election is re-run without recourse to new nominations within five College days of reaching such a conclusion.

J. Supervision of Elections

 63. The Returning Officer shall be:

 65. A supervisory authority may impose an elections committee or scrutineer for any election in the Union.
 66. In all elections except for Union Officers or positions deriving membership or permanent observer rights upon the Council, Executive Committee or Court, the supervisory authority may also replace a returning officer (even if ex officio), member of an elections committee or scrutineer, and is the only body entitled to do so over the objections of the person being removed. The Court may act to remove any person involved in the administration of any election in the Union.
 67. In this regulation, the term "supervisory authority" shall refer to, in increasing order of seniority:
 1. the committee or senior policy-making body of the constituent part of the Union in which the election is held, or officer with their delegated powers,
 2. the President, and
 3. the Court (whose decision is final).
 68. An authority is exercisable as a standing order or policy (though not in the case of the Court), or just invoked for a particular election. A more senior supervisory authority may amend the decision of a junior one, and may act whether or not it has previously acted.
 69. If the President is the returning officer, a candidate or otherwise not impartial, his position as an authority in 67.2 shall be struck out for that election.
- Elections Committees
70. In Sabbatical Officer, Felix Editor and Student Trustee elections, and other elections as may be prescribed or ordered, an elections committee shall supervise the elections and reserve certain duties of the returning officer to itself, including:
 1. counting the votes,

 2. Propose or second an amendment to a current motion,
 3. Table a report, or
 4. Propose a procedural motion.
58. Only one motion or amendment may be debated at any one time.

63. In the event of there being no discussion once a motion, amendment or report has been proposed and seconded, the Chair shall:
1. Formally ask if there is any opposition or questions, and
 2. Warn the meeting that if there is no opposition or questions the motion, amendment or report shall be declared as carried. In the event of there being still no opposition or questions, the Chair shall declare the same.

Amendments

64. At any time after a motion has been proposed and seconded and before the proposer starts summing up, a member may propose an amendment to that motion. Amendments must be seconded and require acceptance as valid amendments by the Chair.
65. Every amendment shall be relevant to the motion.

66. Once an amendment is before the meeting it must be dealt with before returning to discussion of the motion, as follows:
 1. If the amendment is carried discussion now continues on the amended motion,
 2. If the amendment is defeated, discussion reverts to the original motion.
67. If an amendment is carried, the motion as amended displaces the original motion and itself becomes the substantive motion whereupon any further amendment relating to any portion of the substantive motion may be moved. After the votes on succeeding amendments have been taken, the surviving proposition shall be put to the vote as the main question and if carried shall then become a resolution of the meeting.
68. On an amendment being carried, the proposer of the original substantive motion still has the right of reply to debate except that he may waive this right in favour of the proposer of the amendment.

Reports

A discussion shall be held, and if the report is tabled to 'be accepted' a vote shall be taken on approval of the report. Reports tabled for the meeting's specific approval must be tabled to 'be accepted'.
70. The meeting may not amend a report, but may invite the person presenting it to do so. Approved reports do not form a resolution of the meeting in themselves. An item of the report shall be approved separately as a motion to the meeting to form such a resolution.
71. A report by an officer or representative which he or she is required to table to Council or General Meeting by the Constitution, Regulations, prior Union policy or their resolution shall be either approved or rejected by that meeting. A meeting may only reject a report (or lack thereof) submitted under a policy or resolution if it was in force before and at the start of the meeting.
72. If a General Meeting is called to hold a Sabbatical Officer or Felix Editor to account, that person must submit a report to it, which may be accepted or rejected by the meeting.
73. If such a report is not submitted to the Council or General Meeting, or it is submitted late, a good reason may be demanded for the nil or late report to not be rejected.
74. If a report is not discussed or voted upon at a Council meeting for any reason except deciding specifically not to discuss it, it may be added to the agenda of the subsequent meeting at the discretion of the Council Chair.

Rejected reports

75. If a report is rejected after a vote, the person responsible for it will be required to re-present it with such amendments as that person shall choose to make at the next meeting of the Council, so long as the following conditions are satisfied:
 1. The chair informs the person that he or she must re-present the report and the consequences of it again being rejected,
 2. The next meeting must be between one and seven weeks later,
 3. The 1st August must not intervene before the next meeting,

 5. The report was not by a member of the Court and in that capacity.
76. If the person whose report was rejected holds sabbatical office or otherwise derives employment by the Union from office, then a disciplinary investigation under regulation 8.19 – 8.23 shall be undertaken by a nominee of the Council Chair.
77. If, in respect of 75.1, the person was not in attendance when the report was rejected, or the requirement to re-present the report was not mentioned, the chair or a nominee must use his or her best endeavours to inform the person before the start of the next meeting.

81. If the person whose re-presented report is rejected has previously been censured in the same academic year in the post for which he or she was the author of the report, that censure also being in existence at the beginning of the meeting in which the re-presented report was rejected the motion shall instead be of no confidence.

82. In addition to original motions, amendments and reports, the procedural motions below may be proposed.
83. Procedural motions have differing conditions as follows:
 1. Motions with asterisks (*) have no discussion before being accepted or refused.
 2. The chair rules on all motions, except motion d (challenge to the Chair) and those requiring the meeting's approval (+, ++).
 3. Motions with a percentage sign (%) are decided by the Chair alone and cannot be overturned by motion 'd'.
 4. Motions with two pluses (++) require a two-thirds majority.

 6. Motion i (&) requires only one-third of those members present and voting (that is, it requires two-thirds of the meeting to vote a roll-call vote down).
 7. Motions with a tilde '~' may not be used at general meetings.
84. The motions are as follows, in decreasing order of precedence:
 - a. Point of order, * %

The term of office for the Full Members of the Union runs for one year from the 1st August following election. The term of office for Life Members runs for three years from the 1st August following election, each such member appointed in consecutive years. A term of office may be renewed.

Renewal of terms for those originally nominated by the Executive Committee shall be subject to the approval of the Council, but not the re-nomination of the Executive Committee. A Full Member whose status as a registered student ceases must be nominated and approved as one of the Life Members to continue membership of the Court.

Life Members, or those Full Members who may be appointed as Life Members upon expiry of their student registration at the College, may not attend the Council during the discussion or vote upon approval of their nomination or renewal of membership, but may submit written comments to the Council. The Council may suspend this rule.

Upon the first approval of nominations of Life Members, they shall be divided by lot at the Council, one serving a one year term, the second a two year term and the third a three year term. If fewer than three are initially appointed then the first appointed shall serve three years, the second two years and the third one year. If two are appointed at the same meeting their terms will be determined by lot.

Life Members appointed to the Court upon its inauguration shall serve for the remainder of the academic year in addition to their term.

Any vacancy is filled by the same process as the annual nominations and elections. If the vacancy arises by the time of or after the Council meets to elect or approve nominations for the next year, the Council may choose to extend the term of service of a newly elected or approved member, so that he or she starts immediately. If several people within one category are newly approved by the Council for currently vacant posts, the Council may choose to decide by lot from those who wish to do so and are not ineligible by virtue of currently holding another disqualifying post, whose term of service will start immediately.

If a Life Member position falls vacant during the three year term, the replacement member's term shall expire at the same time as the original member's.

If the Council has not elected or approved three or more members of the Court (except the staff member of Imperial College) by the 1st November in an academic year then the remaining members of the Court may, in committee, appoint further members from within the eligible candidates for each vacant post. Standing orders may provide for restrictions in the functions of temporary members. The election or approval of new members by the Council rescinds a temporary appointment by the Court.

Prescribing when members of the Court may request a hearing in a case in a personal capacity.

The Court may meet 'in committee' to deal with its own administrative business, and must meet as such if appointing its Chair and Deputy Chair, adopting or amending the code of conduct or standing orders. An amendment to the code of conduct or standing orders requires the approval of a two-thirds majority of those present and voting. If conducting a hearing it shall meet 'in session'.

Regulations 2, 4 and 5 shall apply to the Court in respect of its internal procedure with such modifications as may be made in its standing orders. No such standing order shall alter the Council's jurisdiction in Part B of this Regulation or the jurisdiction of the Council, Council Chair or Court Chair under Regulation 5. An internal motion by the Court to censure or dismiss a person from membership of it (but not the Chair, Deputy Chair or internal official merely from post) must nevertheless comply with Regulations 4 and 5, be held in committee, and be chaired by the Council Chair or a nominee who is not a member of the Court.

No person may proxy a vote under any circumstances within the Court when in committee or in session.

the following people or bodies in the following circumstances, though standing orders may impose restrictions: An interpretation, review or declaration may be requested by any member of the Union or constituent part of the Union, A request for an adjudication in a role equivalent to that of the Press Complaints Commission may be made by any person or organisation mentioned or referred to in a Union publication, or by the Mediation Board, An appeal in an election or referendum dispute may be made by any candidate or elector in it, An inquiry may be requested by the Council, Executive Committee, 50 Full Members of the Union or any constituent part of the Union, A review of any proposed constitutional amendment, regulation, policy or act may be requested by any member of the Union or constituent part of the Union, A case in another jurisdiction created by any policy or rule shall be summoned in whatever way that policy or rule determines, or by standing orders.

The Court may only make one of the specified compulsory directions if there is no other way in which the information can be obtained, and their contents are likely to affect a final or interim determination. The specified compulsory directions shall be made subject to such rules and guidance as set out in standing orders, and may only be made after such standing orders are established. A person subject to a specified compulsory direction may request a hearing and make comments or submissions about whether the direction should remain or be amended. The President may attend any such hearing involving staff. The fact that material is confidential or sensitive does not exclude it from the Court's jurisdiction, unless it is wholly a staff matter as defined in Part K.

Staff matters are being discussed, A member of the Union staff is giving evidence in his capacity as a member of staff, unless he or she consents to being heard in public, A decision or act under the Disciplinary Policy is being reviewed, and a defendant student or body does not wish it to be in public, The Court is of the view that the quality of a person's evidence would be improved by it being given in private, due to its sensitivity or their vulnerability, It relates to a without notice application for a direction to search premises or other purpose, or In cases of grave disorder.

The Council, or a policy-making body within its jurisdiction, may by policy authorise the Court to make an emergency order or direction in specified circumstances, and to the extent that the policy prescribes.

Compliance

Any person may request that the Court reconvenes to examine whether a determination or direction was or is being complied with. The Court may also do so of its own motion.

The Court may make a further determination, which may include no order, or in any case where it decides that an previous order was not complied with, the following:

Amend or rescind any current order,

Impose any new order,

Impose a mandatory or prohibiting order upon a more senior person or body in the Union,

Propose a motion of censure or no confidence to the Council or any other committee entitled to pass it, or

Make a penal order.

Any order made under the above sub-paragraphs 58.1-58.3 must have been one which the Court would have originally had the jurisdiction to impose, unless made under a policy or rule which provides for further types of orders upon a breach.

If a proposal for a censure or no confidence is made, it shall be treated for all purposes as having been validly proposed to any committee entitled to hear it. A proposer may or may not be appointed. Any rules of the committee to whom it is proposed regarding advance notice of such motions must be complied with. The Court may then make further orders requiring the appropriate committee to hear it at the next available meeting. No emergency meeting to hear such a motion may be called after the end of the Summer Term.

A penal order may be imposed upon any constituent part of the Union apart from the Council, Executive Committee, commercial services or individual members or staff. It may include suspension, freezing of budget (subject to the President or Deputy President (Finance & Services) authorising expenditure for the performance of a legal obligation) and a prohibition on use of room bookings or other Union facilities.

A penal order made in relation to a breach of a specified compulsory direction may apply to any constituent part of the Union allowable above, for which an individual breaching a direction is the chair, treasurer, secretary or other senior post-holder if the breach is relevant to that constituent part of the Union.

A penal order may be reduced or rescinded by the Council.

Staff matters

The Court's jurisdiction shall not extend to matters which are wholly staff matters as defined by the Staff Student Protocol.

The Court may hear evidence and require evidence, documentation and items from members of staff in closed session which may involve staff matters, but only to the extent that it assists in determining any disputed fact or rule which is not a staff matter.

The Court shall interpret the meaning of the Protocol. Any such declaration shall only be made after the President or Union General Manager has had the opportunity to make submissions or comments. The Court Chair or panel chair shall be responsible for clarifying and enforcing this protocol when the Court is sitting or in administrative matters relating to the Court.

Any staff matters remain confidential, and any later determination shall omit or anonymize any such reference.
