Some Committee members are also recipients of Union Awards but to clarify the process, these members were asked to leave the room whilst their nominations were being considered and also abstained from voting when they felt a conflict of interest against a nominee. In some occasions, members removed themselves from the room at when there was discussion of a nominee where they felt too connected to the individual nominated to make an unbiased decision

The Awards Policy allows Council to bestow an award an individual...’ The policy in no way rules out the recognition by the Union of an individual or group’s contribution to the Union over some period of time in a manner not prescribed in this policy.’

A large number of nominations were received for William Glendinning who is a conductor for Chamber Choir. William is not a student and the committee decided to strongly recommend to Council to bestow Honorary Life Membership to William for the exceptional service and dedication he has given to Chamber Choir over a number of years.

Decision Required

1. To approve the nominations made by the Union Awards Committee.
2. To bestow Honorary Life Membership to William Glendinning for his exceptional service to the Chamber Choir.
